CDPM
DOCUMENTAÇÃO
02150
TL7288

From Gv.K. ET - A.

December 11, 1989 I - A.

Re East Timor:

November 4, 1989

An Apodeti inspired demonstration in Dili against Bishop Belo was countered by another demonstration. The Apodeti group was protesting the opportunity the Bishop gave to the demonstrators at the time of the Pope's visit and his continued support for them.

These "counter" demonstrators were also among those involved in the demonstration at the time of the Pope's visit. A video made at that time enabled the intelligence to identify clearly those involved. Arrests were made the following day.

Arrested: Only the following can be confirmed. J3

Jose Manuel Fernandos - 20 yrs
Donaciano da Costa Gomes (Adanu) - 21 yrs

Students from Liceum Santo Jose Catholic high school in Dili. (This school is the only one in East Timor that uses Portuguese language in instruction, though it follows the Indonesian curriculum.) Banner holders at the demonstration at the time of the Pope's visit. Held in Wisma Senopati II. Tortured with electric shock after douching in cold water, and beatings with thick wooden branches. K3

Jose Minas - 19 yrs
Jose ? - 18 yrs
Antonio Castro - 20 yrs
Antanasio - 17 yrs

Senior high school students from Catholic high school in Dili, held in Nusra Bakti. Tortured by beatings with thick wooden branches. K3.

The following are in hiding as they are also being sought for the same involvements:

Constancio Pinto - 24 yrs (Teacher at the Santo Jose school, and a leader of the Catholic Scout Movement)
David da Costa Piedade - 25 yrs (Also teacher at the Santo Jose school)
Aleixo Laga - student at the Santo Jose school
Francisco Lelan - student at the Santo Jose school

November 15, 1989

As the above 4 were not found, on this date the Santo Jose school was attacked. The school was surrounded by a unit from Kodim, the local military command, a platoon of military police, and 4 platoons from the 744 battalion, which is totally East Timorese.

The soldiers advanced with bayonets, and the male students responded by throwing stones. Younger students and female students fled via the convent and church behind the school. The soldiers then let off three volleys of gunfire from their M16s.

From G.V.K. ET-A.

December 11, 1989 I-A.

Re East Timor:

November 4, 1989

An Apodeti inspired demonstration in Dili against Bishop Belo was countered by another demonstration. The Apodeti group was protesting the opportunity the Bishop gave to the demonstrators at the time of the Pope's visit and his continued support for them.

These "counter" demonstrators were also among those involved in the demonstration at the time of the Pope's visit. A video made at that time enabled the intelligence to identify clearly those involved. Arrests were made the following day.

J3

Arrested: Only the following can be confirmed.

Jose Manuel Fernandos - 20 yrs
Donaciano da Costa Gomes (Adanu) - 21 yrs

Students from Liceum Santo Jose Catholic high school in Dili. (This school is the only one in East Timor that uses Portuguese language in instruction, though it follows the Indonesian curriculum.) Banner holders at the demonstration at the time of the Pope's visit. Held in Wisma Senopati II. Tortured with electric shock after douching in cold water, and beatings with thick wooden branches.

K3

Jose Minas - 19 yrs
Jose ? - 18 yrs
Antonio Castro - 20 yrs
Antanasio - 17 yrs

Senior high school students from Catholic high school in Dili, held in Nusra Bakti. Tortured by beatings with thick wooden branches.

K3.

The following are in hiding as they are also being sought for the same involvements:

Constancio Pinto - 24 yrs (Teacher at the Santo Jose school, and a leader of the Catholic Scout Movement)
David da Costa Piedade - 25 yrs (Also teacher at the Santo Jose school)
Aleiko Laga - student at the Santo Jose school
Francisco Lelan - student at the Santo Jose school

November 15, 1989

As the above 4 were not found, on this date the Santo Jose school was attacked. The school was surrounded by a unit from Kodim, the local military command, a platoon of military police, and 4 platoons from the 744 battalion, which is totally East Timorese.

The soldiers advanced with bayonets, and the male students responded by throwing stones. Younger students and female students fled via the convent and church behind the school. The soldiers then let off three volleys of gunfire from their M16s.

One student (Humberto Delgado Borges de Albuquerque) escaped on a motor bike and informed the Bishop that the school was under attack. The Bishop immediately went to the scene.

One student was taken by the soldiers, Natalino Peltrao (19 yrs). The soldiers then entered the building and searched it. They found one student hiding in the toilets (Manuel-Mausiri). He was beaten by the soldiers until he was bleeding and then he fainted.

Natalino, the student taken by the soldiers, was able to call out to the Bishop when the latter arrived. The Bishop spoke with the commander of the operation, and he was given permission to take Natalino home to his residence.

Political prisoners are presently being held in the following known places in Dili:

Wisma (Guest house) Sunopati II
Headquarters of the Red Beret Brigade Kopassus (paratroopers)
-the former residence of Mr. Dos Martires
Kodim (local military) headquarters and Nusra Bakti
(a business with military connections)
Private residences of: Chiquito Osorio
Labut Melo
Armindo Mariano